Data Protection Statement:

The use of our website is generally possible without providing personal data. To the extent personal data is collected on our sites (such as name, address or e-mail addresses), such data, to the extent possible, is collected on a voluntary basis (e.g. when placing an order, sending inquiries, surveys or applications) or the extent allowed by applicable laws for the protection of your data, including but not limited to the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"). The language used in this statement refers to the definitions used in the GDPR. This data shall not be forwarded to third parties without your express permission. Recipients not deemed to be "third parties" in this regard are affiliated firms of the group of the AXXO Im- & Export GmbH

We will collect, process and use the personal data provided by you only for the purposes communicated to you. However, we reserve the right to disclose information about you, provided we are required to do so by law or such disclosure is required of us by a government agency acting in accordance with the law.

When designing this website, we committed ourselves to the protection of personal data, data security and to complying with applicable laws. We point out, however, that gaps in security can also occur in data transmission on the internet (e.g. when communicating by e-mail). Complete protection of data from access by third parties is impossible. With respect to links on our website to external companies and other third parties, we are not responsible for the data protection requirements or the content of these websites.

We do not use automated decision practices or profiling.

Cookies

This website uses cookies. Cookies are small text files the webserver transfers to your computer in order to help us improve our website for you. The text files do not contain information about you. Most browsers operate with a setting that allows the storage of cookies. You may at any time change the setting of your browser and prevent the setting of cookies as well as delete cookies. You can find support in the help menu of your browser. However the website may not be functioning in its entirety in case cookies are disabled.

Google Maps

This site uses the Google Maps map service via an API. It is operated by Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA. To use Google Maps, it is necessary to save your IP address. This information is generally transmitted to a Google server in the USA and stored there. The provider of this site has no influence on this data transfer. The use of Google Maps is in the interest of making our website appealing and to facilitate the location of places specified by us on the website. This constitutes a justified interest pursuant to Art. 6 (1) (f) DSGVO. Further information about handling user data, can be found in the data protection declaration of Google at <https://www.google.de/intl/de/policies/privacy/>

Contact via website

If you contact us via the contact form on our website the personal data transmitted are automatically stored in order to process them or contact you. We do not transfer such data to third parties.

Application via e-mail

If you send us your application via e-mail we will collect and use the data for the application procedure. We do not transfer such data to third parties. In case a job contract is concluded we will store the data for the purpose of the job relationship with regard to the legal requirements. In case no job contract is concluded we will delete the application documents within 6 Months after we informed you about our decision, unless legitimate interests or legal requirements prevent the deletion.

Your rights in regard to personal data

You have the right at any time to be provided with information free of charge regarding your stored personal data, its origin and recipients and the purpose of the data processing, as well as a right to the correction, blocking or deletion of this data. You further have the right to restrict the processing of the data. You may object at any time to the use of your personal data for the future or revoke your consent to the processing of the data. You further have the right to receive the personal data stored about you and transfer it to another data controller. On this topic, as well as other questions, you may contact us at the address of the website operator indicated in the legal notice or the address of the data controller given above.

Data Retention

We retain personal data for only as long as this is necessary given the purpose thereof and in observance of applicable laws, provided no other contrary legal obligations exist

Legal basis

Legal basis for storing and using your personal data is your consent (e.g. contact via website, cookies, collection of data by website, Google Analytics) or Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b) GDPR in case the processing of the data is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party (e.g. application via e-mail).

Terms of use

The use of contact information, which is published as part of the obligation to provide a legal notice, by third parties in order to send advertisements and informational materials not expressly solicited is hereby expressly objected to. The operators of the sites expressly reserve the right to take legal action in the event of the unsolicited sending of advertising material, such as in the form of spam e-mails.

SSL or TLS encryption

This site uses SSL or TLS encryption for security reasons and for the protection of the transmission of confidential content, such as the inquiries you send to us as the site operator. You can recognize an encrypted connection in your browser's address line when it changes from "http://" to "https://" and the lock icon is displayed in your browser's address bar.

If SSL or TLS encryption is activated, the data you transfer to us cannot be read by third parties.

Server log files

The website provider automatically collects and stores information that your browser automatically transmits to us in "server log files". These are:

- Browser type and browser version
- Operating system used
- Referrer URL
- Host name of the accessing computer
- Time of the server request
- IP address

These data will not be combined with data from other sources.

The basis for data processing is Art. 6 (1) (b) DSGVO, which allows the processing of data to fulfill a contract or for measures preliminary to a contract.
